EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Senior Creative Operations leader with 15 years scaling the creative engine of one of the world's largest luxury fashion platforms. Rose from Production Manager to SVP at FARFETCH, leading a 600+ FTE global organization (900+ with seasonal staff) across 5 countries with a €40M+ P&L. Delivered a 10% → 1% reduction in operational spend through Lean/Kaizen, AI/ML automation, and Virtual Model technology — while maintaining luxury quality. Combines operational rigor at industrial scale with a craft sensibility rooted in textile and graphic design training.

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

10% → 1% — operational spend as % of sales, while maintaining luxury quality

€40M+ P&L — annual operational spend across 5-country organization

600+ FTE — 900+ with seasonal staff, across Portugal, UK, US, Hong Kong

3.6M+ assets/yr — 800k SKUs, 4–5 day SLA from arrival to live

€60 → <€30 — cost-per-item via Virtual Model technology

80%+ automation — product categorization; ML translation in 12+ languages

30%+ efficiency — via Kaizen; 1st place, Kaizen Institute & APGEI award

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

FARFETCH | 2009 – February 2024

Production Manager → SVP Creative Operations (15 years, 6 promotions)

SVP Creative Operations | Feb 2022 – Feb 2024

VP Creative Operations | Aug 2018 – Feb 2022

Owned the end-to-end creative content supply chain — from product arrival to on-platform "live": photography, retouching, styling, copy, translation, categorization, catalogue management, and digital asset production across 5 countries. Led through 4 pillars: Content Development, Content Creation, PPM (Planning, Performance & Management), and SDD (Services Design & Development).

- ▶ Drove a 10% → 1% reduction in operational spend as a percentage of sales — managing a €40M+ annual budget while maintaining luxury quality standards. The signature transformation of the function.
- Led 600+ FTE team (900+ with seasonal staff) across PT/UK/US/HK; 6–7 direct reports
- Built Portugal and Hong Kong studios from scratch; developed and promoted internal talent
- Delivered 3.6M+ digital assets/yr, 800k SKUs, 4–5 day SLA
- Virtual Model technology: cut cost-per-item from €60 to <€30
- 80%+ automation of product categorization; ML translation across 12+ languages

Senior Director, Creative Operations | Jan 2017 – Jul 2018

Guimarães / London / Los Angeles / Hong Kong

- Expanded creative operations into LA and Hong Kong — built 2 local teams and studios from scratch
- Aligned production standards across 4 cultural markets with shared workflows and quality gates

Earlier roles at FARFETCH (2009 – 2016)

Production Manager → Production Director → Global Production Director

Built the production engine from the shop floor — the years where the operational culture, quality standards, and process instincts that later scaled to 5 countries were formed. Led production across 4 countries reporting to the COO before stepping into the Senior Director role.
